I have taken the liberty of offering up David Keirsey’s temperament sorter with information and references from both Keirsey and Myers-Briggs all of whom have written books and offer questionnaires for elucidating and organizing feedback about your personality and assisting in making life choices.

NEXT STEP, Scoring your answers:
Congratulations! Now that you have completed answering all seventy (70) questions by filling in the “a / b” columns on the separate Answer Sheet with a ✓ check mark according to your answer choices for each question, begin the next step which is to score your answers by referring to the scoring instructions included with the Answer and Sample Answer Sheets and tally your score (the four letters that correspond to one of sixteen types) to determine what your type is. (See the Answer Sheet Kit for instructions on scoring). The Sample Answer Sheet and Directions for Scoring are duplicated on the other side of this page for your convenience.
Directions for Scoring

1. Add down so that the total number of “a” answers is written in the box at the bottom of each column (see illustration). Do the same for the “b” answers you have checked. Each of the 14 boxes should have a number in it.

2. Transfer the number in box No. 1 of the answer sheet to box No. 1 below the answer sheet. Do this for box No. 2 as well. Note, however, that you have two numbers for boxes 3 through 8. Bring down the first number for each box beneath the second, as indicated by the arrows. Now add all the pairs of numbers and enter the total in the boxes below the answer sheet, so each box has only one number.

3. Now you have four pairs of numbers. Circle the letter below the larger number of each pair (see answer sheet below for illustration). If the two numbers of any pair are equal, then circle neither, but put a large X below them and circle it.
